

Celebrate Black History

VIRGINIA MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS | FEB & MAR 2010

CURATOR'S TALK

In Pursuit: Frederic Remington and the "Buffalo Soldiers"
Dr. Elizabeth L. O'Leary | Associate Curator of American Art
Wed, Feb 24 | 6 pm | Marble Hall, VMFA
$8 (VMFA members $5, FOAAA members free)

Join Dr. O'Leary as she explores Remington's works, particularly In Pursuit, his striking canvas in VMFA's collection.

FILM SCREENING & DISCUSSION

Sergeant Rutledge

Trent Nicholas | Media Resource Coordinator, VMFA; Film History Instructor, VCU

Dr. Loranett L. Lee | Curator of African-American History, VHS
OFF SITE Sat, Feb 27 | 1 pm | Virginia Historical Society
Free (tickets required)

Directed by John Ford, this 1960 classic film tells the story of a Buffalo Soldier's court martial. Unrated, mature subjects, color, 111 min.

ARTIST'S RETROSPECTIVE

Beyond Social Content: Mel Edwards, Sculptor

Mel Edwards and Ana Edwards

FOAAA Annual Meeting

Thur, Mar 4 | 6:30 pm | Marble Hall, VMFA

$8 (VMFA members $5, FOAAA members free)

One of America's foremost contemporary public art sculptors offers a retrospective of his career. His daughter will discuss his works' impact on her life as an artist and local activist.

Tickets: 804.340.1405 or www.VMFA.museum

In Pursuit (detail), ca. 1898, Frederic Remington, oil on canvas. Gift of the Estate of Sally D. Eddy. Photo by Katherine Wetzel © 2010 Virginia Museum of Fine Arts Jan(5655-163)

VIRGINIA MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS | 200 N. Boulevard | www.VMFA.museum