How do we get to the root of the rich truths revealed in the liturgical year?

Liturgy, for the most part, is already “planned.” Its structure is in place and does not need much change on our part. The foundation is there; we’re called to shape and prepare these elements. Shaping the Year with the Gospel of Luke aims to explore the richness of Liturgical Cycle C, and to set goals for bringing that richness to life in our liturgical celebrations and our formation. We will discuss:

• Luke: a Theological Historian:

Luke’s Gospel, together with its “sequel,” the Acts of the Apostles, presents a breathtaking narrative of early Christianity. How does this magnificently conceived, expertly crafted epic lead us through the year we call Cycle C?

• Luke and Cycle C:

What is the structure and flow of the liturgical year, and how does Luke’s Gospel shape the nuances of each season? How do the other Gospels play a part?

• Using Luke to Shape the Year:

We will look at the flow of each of the major seasons, and discuss how an overall approach to Luke as a reference point might shape our year — on all levels of pastoral planning.
