Shaping the Year with the Gospel of Luke

A Time of Recollection & Formation for Liturgy Teams, Catechists & Others

Wednesday,
June 24, 2009

Diocesan Pastoral Center
7800 Carousel Lane
Richmond, Virginia 23294

Schedule:

8:30—9:00 am Registration

9:00—10:30

Luke: a Theological Historian

Luke's Gospel, together with its "sequel," the Acts of the Apostles, presents a breathtaking narrative of early Christianity, from Gabriel announcing the birth of John the Baptist in Jerusalem to Paul announcing the gospel of Jesus in Rome. How does this majestically conceived, magnificently crafted epic lead us through the Year we call Cycle C?

10:30—10:45 Break

10:45—Noon

Luke & the Cycle C Supranarrative

What is the basic structure and flow of the liturgical year, and how does Luke's Gospel shape the nuances of each season? How do the other Gospels play a part?

Noon—1:00 pm Mass and Lunch

1:00—3:00 pm

Using Luke to Shape the Year

We will look at the flow of each of the major seasons, and discuss how an overall approach to Luke as a reference point might shape our year — on all levels of pastoral planning.

ST. LUKE

COST:

$35 per person

Includes lunch and resources, including LTP's 2010 Sourcebook for Sundays and Seasons, written this year by our own Catherine Comber-Donovan, Director of the Office of Worship for the Diocese of Richmond

How do we get to the root of the rich truths revealed in the Liturgical Year?

Austin Fleming, a leader in the discipline of liturgical preparation, reminds us that the liturgy, for the most part, is already "planned." Its structure is in place and does not need much change on our part. The foundation is there; we're called to shape and prepare these elements. Shaping the Liturgical Year With the Gospel of Luke aims to explore the richness of Liturgical Cycle C, and to set goals for bringing that richness to life in our liturgical celebrations and our formation.
