Shaping the Year with the Gospel of Matthew A Day of Recollection & Formation for Liturgy Teams & Catechists

Saturday, July 24, 2010

9:00 a.m.—3:00 p.m.

At St. Michael Catholic Church

4491 Springfield Road

Glen Allen, VA 23060-3414

Schedule:

8:30-9:00 a.m.:

Registration and Lunch

9:00—10:30:

Matthew's Narrative:

Jesus the Messiah

Matthew provides the bulk of the gospel narrative in liturgical Cycle A. Michael Himes sees this gospel as “the Christian book of wisdom,” and it invites the reader to become a wise scribe of the new law. This gospel also tells us what it means to be Church: a community which excludes no one.

10:30—12:30:

Matthew: the Cycle A Supranarrative

What is the basic structure and flow of the liturgical year, and how does Matthew's Gospel shape the nuances of each season? How do the other Gospels play a part?

12:30—1:30:

LUNCH

1:30-3:00:

Using Matthew to Shape the Year

We will look at the flow of each of the major seasons, and discuss how an overall approach to Matthew might shape our year.

How do we get to the root of the rich truths revealed in the Liturgical Year?

The liturgy, for the most part, is already “planned.” Its structure is in place and does not need much change on our part. The foundation is there; we're called to shape and prepare these elements. Shaping the Liturgical Year With the Gospel of Matthew aims to use the “down time” of Summer to explore the richness of our liturgical year, and to set goals for bringing that richness to life in our liturgical celebrations.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

- Ministry Leaders
- Catechists
- Worship Team Members
- Little Rock Facilitators
- Liturgical Ministers
- Members of the Assembly
- Anyone interested in knowing more about the Gospel which will shape our spiritual life in 2011!
